

WILLIMANTIC

What is Going On Tonight
Willimantic Woman's Club (afternoon)
Francis S. Long Post, No. 30, G. A. R., Memorial Hall.

SHERIFF GATES' APPOINTMENTS
Most of the Officials Succeeded Themselves.

The appointments of Sheriff Charles A. Gates of Windham county were announced Monday, and as expected, most of them were reappointments. The list follows: Deputy Jailer, Albert S. Field, Brooklyn; deputy sheriffs, George R. Bilven, Plainfield; George F. Holbrook, Putnam; William M. Bates, Thompson; John H. Fitts, Hampton; Leonard H. Healey, Woodstock; Michael Grimsbury, Killingly; Addison J. Greenalt, Windham; Edwin Bennett, Brooklyn.

Week's Payroll $507.
The city labor payroll for the week ending April 17, 1915, totalled $507.94, divided as follows: Police department, $139.65; street department, $256.18; maintaining sewers, $33.00; water-works, $82.11.

Possibility That Dogs May Be Muzzled
The selection were in telephone communication Monday with the office of Jeffrey O. Phelps, commissioner of domestic animals, in regard to the case of rabies on Windham road, and stated that as a result of their talk it was probable that the commissioner would issue a muzzling order today compelling all owners of dogs in Windham to keep them muzzled until further notice.

ATTEMPTS SUICIDE AGAIN.

David Barrows Despondent Through Drink, Put in Hospital.

David Barrows of Mansfield, who lives with his family on the David Clark place near the South Coventry station, is at St. Joseph's hospital as the result of an attempted suicide Sunday, when he shot himself through the right breast with a .32 calibre revolver. He is resting comfortably and is expected to recover, if no complications set in.

Barrows, it is said, had been drinking last week, and shot himself in a fit of despondency following the debacle. He threatened the people in his home with a loaded revolver, saying he would shoot anyone who followed him, and then went out into a lot near the house and put a bullet into his body. This is the third time the man has tried to do away with himself. Once he tried Paris green and the second time hanging. Dr. W. L. Higgins attended him, and gave him treatment after he was brought to the hospital.

John McGuinness Home.

John McGuinness, son of Dr. and Mrs. Daniel McGuinness of this city, who was injured in an automobile accident in Long Island the first of this month, arrived in Willimantic Sunday, accompanied by his brother Arthur of New York. Mr. McGuinness is still suffering from his experience, with a bandaged forehead, a lacerated hand and a sprained ankle.

CITY COURT.
Thomas Horrigan Must Pay Old Fine—Case of Ill Temper and Non-Support—Blanche Wood Sent to House of the Good Shepherd.

The Monday session of the police court disposed of four cases. Thomas Horrigan, arrested on a charge of drunkenness, not only received a sentence of thirty days in jail, but in addition, had to pay a fine of one dollar and costs imposed last fall, which he never had settled.

David Duquette, who while sober let his temper get the best of him and took an axe to the bureau of his home in South Coventry, was fined a dollar and costs for breach of the peace, and put on probation.

The continued case of Joseph Potvin, charged with non-support, was heard. The accused was represented by Attorney Samuel B. Harvey. Potvin claimed he was willing to support his family, but they would not live with him. On his filing a bond for their support, the case will be nolle.

Probation Officer William C. Lyman reported to the court that Blanche Wood, 14 years of age, who was placed on probation last September on a charge of being in danger of falling into habits of vice, had of late been returning to her old habits, and was beyond the control of her parents.

Under these circumstances, the original commitment was ordered, and the girl was taken to the Home of the Good Shepherd in Hartford later in the day, to remain until she becomes of age.

Settled Out of Court.

The case of Spear & Company, for a bill for furniture furnished to George J. Root and wife of Windham, set down for trial before Justice Curtis Dean, Monday, was adjusted by agreement between the attorneys in the case, A. J. Bowen and S. B. Harvey.

Norwich Defendants Appeal.
In the suit of Louis Zechel vs. Craney and Harris of Norwich, judgment was rendered Saturday by Justice C. A. Capen and appeal taken to the superior court by the Norwich parties. The suit is over a claim for $52.36 for services and material.

Attended Stenington Banquet.
T. Frank Cunningham, Luke Allain, Edmund Hurley, T. F. Berth and Edward A. Grady, of San Jose council, No. 14, K. of C., were present Sunday at the banquet of Nine council in Stenington, and reported a fine time.

Visit from Colchester K. of P.
At the regular meeting of Natchaug lodge, No. 22, K. of P., held in their rooms in the Jordan block Monday evening, a delegation from Colchester lodge was present, and the work of the third degree was performed on three candidates. An entertainment, including music, speeches and the like, concluded the good time.

Petition for License for South Coventry.
Although the last petitioner for a second license in the town of South Coventry, was snowed under by remonstrances, and withdrew his petition, another petition has been filed with the commissioners of Tolland county for a license for Carman's store in the village. The petitioner is William A. J. Smith of Manchester. It was stated at the time of the former petition that Manchester parties were behind the matter. It is likely that those who effectively staved off the former attempt will marshal petitions again to head off this application, as the cottagers are said to have made other residents of that section are strongly disposed to further licenses in the town.

FUNERAL.
Miss Hannah Fitzpatrick.
The funeral of Miss Hannah Fitzpatrick was held at 1:30 Sunday afternoon from the home of her niece, Mrs. Michael Shea, of Bank street. Services were held at St. Joseph's church at 2 o'clock. Rev. T. F. Bannon officiating. Burial was in St. Joseph's cemetery. The bearers were James Healey, John Sullivan, Patrick McKee, Sweeney and Morris Kelley.

Woodland Fire.
A fire in the stretch of woods north of Shry street, near the rear of Edward Gordon's home, burned all day Sunday. Members of the Alert Hose company made three trips to the place where chemicals were used in controlling the burned area. Carelessness on the part of boys or smokers probably was responsible for its start.

OBITUARY.
Mrs. Edson D. Fuller.
Caroline A., widow of Edson D. Fuller, died at 9:30 Monday morning at her home of her daughter, Mrs. Albert C. Whitaker, of 501 Jackson street, after a short illness with pneumonia. She was 52 years of age, a native of Chaplin, born May 6, 1832, the daughter of Warren and Caroline (Neff) Colburn. She had been a resident of Willimantic for many years, since the death of her husband. There survive her three daughters, Mrs. Whitaker, Mrs. C. C. Willis and Miss Emma Fuller; four sisters, Mrs. Mary Fuller, of Syracuse, N. Y.; Mrs. A. Neff and Mrs. L. C. Malone of Bridgeport, and Mrs. J. F. Case of Colchester; beside two sons, Mr. William and Caroline Willis of Springfield.

Mrs. Ellen Booth Derby.
Mrs. Ellen Booth Derby, daughter of the late Rev. Chauncey Booth, for many years pastor of the Congregational church in South Coventry, and aunt of the late Henry F. Dimock, who bequeathed a great part of the money used in the construction of the library at the Congregational library in South Coventry, died at her home in Springfield, Mass., Saturday. It is expected that several members of the Derby family will attend the funeral services, and a handsome floral tribute will be presented by the association.

Frederick Perkins.
Frederick Perkins, 80, died at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Gardner of Mansfield Saturday after a short illness. He was a native of Mansfield, and resided in South Coventry, Massachusetts. Funeral services were held at 1 o'clock Sunday afternoon, Rev. Leonard Smith of Spring Hill officiating. Burial was in the Hill cemetery. The bearers were R. W. Gardner, Judge L. J. Storrs, Orrin Nason and Lewis Rogers.

The funeral of Phyllis S. Rogers was held from her home in Spring Hill at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon. Rev. Leonard Smith of Spring Hill, assisted by Rev. A. L. Murr, officiated at the services. There was special music during the services by Mrs. Wayne Storrs. The bearers were L. J. Storrs, E. E. Rogers, J. E. Fishbein and H. M. Day. Burial was in the Spring Hill cemetery in charge of Funeral Director Jay M. Shepard.

DOES RHEUMATISM BOTHER YOU?

The Doctors Say "Use Musterole"

So many sufferers have found relief in MUSTEROLE that you ought to buy a small jar and try it. Rub it in. First you feel a gentle glow, then a delicious, cooling comfort. MUSTEROLE routs the twinges, loosens up stiffened joints and muscles.

MUSTEROLE is a clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard. It penetrates to the seat of pain and drives it away, but does not blister the tenderest skin.

It takes the place of the mussy, old fashioned rub of mustard plaster. MUSTEROLE is recommended for Bronchitis, Croup, Asthma, Pleurisy, Lumbago, Neuralgia, Sprains, Bruises, Stiff Neck, Headache and Colds of the Chest (it often prevents Pneumonia). At your druggist's, in 25c and 50c jars, and a special large hospital size for $2.50.

Be sure you get the genuine MUSTEROLE. Refuse imitations—get what you ask for. The Musterole Company, Cleveland, Ohio.

Sulphate of Copper Supply.
The supply of sulphate of copper of which there is an enormous consumption in the winery districts of France is running low. In order to prevent the cornering of the stocks on hand and exorbitant prices by speculation the government has appealed to Great Britain to rescind in favor of France its prohibition of the exportation of this product from the kingdom.

DISAPPROVES PROPOSED REVISION OF STATUTES.
Conn. Editorial Association Objects to $5,000 Salaries for Lawyers.

New Haven, Conn., April 19.—Disapproval of the bill now pending in the general assembly calling for a revision of the general statutes by a commission of lawyers under salaries of $5,000 each was voiced by the Connecticut Editorial association at its quarterly meeting held here this afternoon.

The following resolution was adopted: "Resolved, That the Connecticut Editorial association express its disapproval of a bill for statutes revision now before the Connecticut assembly calling for the appointment of a commission of five persons at a salary of $5,000 each, and the association believes the statutes revision can be best accomplished by an honorary or non-salaried commission of five persons, and the association believes the work of an expert or secretary who might be employed to do the actual revision and the total cost of such revision need not exceed $5,000."

What Cures Eczema?

We have had so many inquiries lately regarding Eczema and other skin diseases, that we are glad to make our answer public. After careful investigation we have found that a simple wash of Oil of Wintergreen, as compounded in D. D. D. Prescription, can be relied upon. We would not make this statement to our patrons, friends and neighbors unless we were sure of it—and although there are many so-called Eczema remedies sold, we ourselves are hesitatingly recommending D. D. D. Prescription. All druggists have D. D. D. Prescription. Drop into our store today, just to talk over the merits of this wonderful Prescription. Ask also about D. D. D. Soap.
